

MISSIONS UPDATE

"And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations..."

Matthew 24:14

LOOKING FORWARD TO A NEW YEAR

If there's one thing we can all agree on this year, it's that it was full of unexpected challenges for everyone! Here's an update from 3 of our missionaries as we close out 2020: the Ewarts, working in college ministry in NY's North Country; John Morris, leading the web-based ministry Acts One Eight; and retired Congo missionary, Chuck Davis.

GLEN & BEVERLY EWART
NEW YORK (INTERVARSITY)

Glen is active in New York's North Country chapter of Intersarsity, a national collegiate ministry dedicated to nurturing young adults in their walk with the Lord. In 2020, Glen videotaped 18 interviews with alumni and 5 interviews with current students. These sessions reveal the fundamental impact that IV has on campus participants, achieved primarily through small group fellowship.

JOHN MORRIS
COLORADO (ACTS ONE EIGHT)

Actsoneeight.org is a cyber-ministry that creates focused, easy-to-digest digital video content to teach those new to the Gospel as well as seasoned believers. This ministry has brought him in touch with people from all over the world. EGCC's support of John goes all the way back to the 1970s and he continues to adapt his approach to missions!

CHARLES DAVIS
RETIRED (AFRICA INLAND MISSIONS)

Chuck and wife Muriel express their gratitude for our continued support, acknowledging that many of their peers are struggling to make ends meet. They now busily serve God and teach in their AIM retirement community in Florida after long careers in the Congo, including a 3-mo. period in the 1964 where they were held under house arrest during a Rebellion!

Did you know that our missionaries often have newsletters that they share with the latest developments within their organizations and ministries? If you would like to be added to the list of individuals who receive periodic updates from one or more missionaries, please let us know at missions_board@egcchurch.org

PRAYER NEEDS & PRAISES

Thank you for taking the time to catch up on these missionaries. Please honor them with your prayers and thanksgivings in response to the below information. EGCC is blessed to do our part in fulfilling the Great Commission and spreading the Gospel around the world and here at home - both by supporting active missionaries at home and abroad and by supporting them in retirement.

All our Missionaries:

- That they be encouraged that their work has eternal value
- That He relieve their weariness and bring fresh supplies of energy
- That any feelings of isolation be brought under control

Glen & Beverly Ewart:

- Prayers for continued zeal to conduct these personal interviews
- Prayers to foster small group connections despite limitations
- Prayers for new 2020 project showing value of mentorship
- Praise that the testimony reveals the importance of this campus ministry during vulnerable college years

John Morris:

- Prayers to both attract new listeners for his various websites and manage the current traffic as God drives people to his work
- Prayers to craft content that answers people's questions and helps lead them to a right relationship with God
- Praise for healing from a bad fall down the stairs in September

Chuck & Muriel Davis:

- Muriel suffers from various health issues, needing prayers for pain relief, appetite and strength; both of them need stamina
- Praising God to know that we are keeping them in our thoughts and prayers and regular contact

The next installment of the Missions Update will share news from different supported missionaries. In the meantime, be on the lookout for select digital content that we will periodically share with the congregation to better connect you to our supported ministries.
