6:45 pm Special Prayer Night

As we have worked on searching for a new Youth Director and have thought about what young person we might call to uproot and move to Glenville, I have felt the conviction that we need to bring this before God in prayer as a congregation. So, I'm putting out a call for a Special Prayer Night on Wednesday, May 1st at 6:45pm. This will be in place of the normal Wednesday night Bible studies for that evening, and after the normal Fellowship Dinner. This will be a time of focused prayer for God to lead and guide us as a church. ~ Pastor Mitch

Attention Readers The next gathering of our Book Club is going to be on Monday evening, May 6th at 7pm at the home of Meli Olson. We will be reading the contemporary fiction novel, "The Extraordinary Deaths of Mrs. Kip," by debut author, Sara Brunsvold. A rookie journalist lands an unorthodox assignment—writing the obituary for the vivacious Mrs. Kip, who is spending her final days in hospice care. This multigenerational story, that weaves together the lives of two women into an unlikely friendship, is a thoughtful and heart-warming read! There are several copies of this book to be borrowed from local libraries. New women are more than welcome to join us at any time.

Please call or text Melisa at 518.435.5836 to RSVP.
