CONSTITUTION of the East Glenville Community Church
2024 Revision

I. Name

- A. The legal name of this church shall be East Glenville Church.

- B. It was founded in 1945 and incorporated under the laws of New York State as of March 25, 1949.

- C. Our descriptive name shall be East Glenville Community Church.

II. Purpose

A. The vision of this church is to love God, love people (Matthew 22: 38-40) and help them to know and follow Jesus (Matthew 28:18-20).

B. This vision will be realized through a mission of worshipping, equipping, caring and serving together to bring the gospel to our community, and lived out by the following methods, as we:

- 1) Worship--meeting together to regularly praise God, pray together and encourage one another in faith
- 2) Teach--equip one another to do the work of ministry and effectively communicate the gospel in word and deed
- 3) Care--meet together regularly in smaller groups to more intimately encourage one another in the scriptures, pray together, comfort one another in trials and temptations, and hold one another accountable
- 4) Serve--understand our giftedness and work together as a community to fulfill our mission
- 5) Reach Out--intentionally seek opportunities to impact our family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers with God's grace and the good news of the gospel

C. Furthermore, we are obligated and privileged before God to administer the Christian ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper regularly and when it is appropriate in obedience to the commands of Christ (Matt. 28:19; I Cor. 11:23-26). With regards to Baptism, we allow for diversity of understanding and practice, but we reject the doctrine of Baptismal Regeneration.

III. Statements of Faith

A. The creed of this church shall be the Apostles' Creed and our Statement of Faith as stated below.

1. Apostles' Creed – I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

2. EGCC Statement of Faith

a. We believe the Bible, consisting of the Old and New Testament, to be the only inspired, inerrant, infallible, authoritative Word of God written. (II Tim. 3:16, 17; II Peter 1:21)

b. We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; Jn. 14:9-17, 20; II Cor. 13:14)

c. We believe in the deity of Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory. (Jn. 1:1, 14; Matt. 1:20-23; II Cor. 5:21; Acts 2:22-23; Rom. 5:9-11; I Thess. 4:13-18)

d. We believe that for salvation of lost and sinful man regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential. (Jn. 1:12, 13; Jn. 3:3-8)

e. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling power and fullness the Christian is enabled to live a godly life in this present evil world. (Gal. 5:16-26; I Cor. 2:6-16)

f. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life, and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation. (I Cor. 15:12-26; Jn. 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15)

g. We believe in the spiritual unity of all believers in Christ. (Eph. 2:14-22; 4:4)

h. We believe that marriage is a covenant between a man and a woman and God. (Gen. 2:18-24, Mal. 2:14, Matt. 19:4-6, Mk. 10:6-9, Eph. 5:22-33)

B. This church also recognizes the importance of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Cambridge Platform and the Savoy Declaration as historic Congregational documents. They are useful for reference, but members are not required to be in total agreement with them.

C. Church Covenant

Our church members ascribe to the following covenant and will on stated occasions pledge themselves to uphold it. “We covenant with the Lord and one another; and do bind ourselves in the presence of God, to walk together in all His ways, according as He is pleased to reveal Himself unto us in His blessed Word of Truth.

IV. Polity

Jesus Christ is the Head and Builder of the universal Christian Church and of this local church. He delegates the governing of its affairs to the members who compose it. Though the members may delegate authority to officers, leadership teams and ministry personnel through its By-laws, the ultimate authority under Christ rests with the congregation. In all corporate matters the membership, as stated in the By-laws, shall act with a collective and clear conscience, having sought the will of God and determined to their satisfaction His ways from the teachings of Scripture. The membership is bound by no other ecclesiastical body. The church is subject to the pertinent portions of the 'Religious Corporations Law of New York State' with particular reference to Article 8, "Congregational and Independent Churches." The membership may from time to time voluntarily affiliate or associate with other evangelical bodies for the sake of mutual accountability, expediency, encouragement and support.

V. Dissolution

Dissolution of this church shall never result in any part of the net earnings or assets benefitting any donor or member of this church. All assets remaining after payment or provision for outstanding liabilities will be distributed by vote of the membership to one or more evangelical organizations with demonstrated commitment to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, as well as acceptance of the Bible as the inspired Word of God, authoritative in all matters of faith and practice.

VI. Amendments

Any member(s) may propose an amendment to the Constitution at a duly called meeting of the church when a quorum is present. The Constitution or part(s) of it may be amended by the following procedure. The proposed amendment must be written and announced to the membership of the church. At the next duly called business meeting a majority of those qualified and present may vote for the amendment to be posted and distributed for final action at a subsequent business meeting. The subsequent business meeting shall include in its call to meeting the entire text of the amendment. It shall be posted as well as distributed to the membership. If two thirds of those qualified and present then vote in favor of the amendment the Constitution shall be amended.

The Senior Pastor is also an ex-officio member of all other Board and ministry teams.

2. Associate Pastors

When the church membership deems it advantageous or necessary, it may vote to acknowledge God's call of additional pastors to serve in specific aspects of the ministry as the leadership deems helpful.

3. Interim Pastor

When a vacancy occurs in any pastoral position, the Elder Board may select an Interim Pastor with the advice of church leaders. It is required that he shall respect and submit to the church Constitution and current Bylaws. An Interim Senior Pastor shall be qualified by ordination of this church or possess the requisite credentials from an acceptable church or ecclesiastical group. Any Interim Pastor shall assume duties agreed upon with the Elder Board. With advice from the Elder Board and other church leaders, an Interim Pastor may serve until a new Pastor is called by the congregation.

B. Ministry Staff

The Ministry Staff shall be members of this church and in agreement with our creed and objectives. They shall be accountable to the Senior Pastor, the Elder Board, and ultimately to the church membership under Christ.

The Director of Youth Ministries shall extend this focus by recruiting and equipping leaders to encourage college age, young adults to become mature disciples of Christ. The Director of Youth Ministries shall report to the Senior Pastor and shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Christian Education Board.

C. Processes for Changing Pastoral and Ministry Staff Positions

1. Additions

An additional pastoral or ministry staff position may be created by the following process: Upon the recommendation of the Senior Pastor and Elder Board, plus the presentation to the congregation of an approved Description of Position document and an appropriate By-laws change to include the position, the church members may affirm, by majority vote at a duly called meeting, the establishment of the new staff position. Any of these positions, except Senior Pastor, may be modified or eliminated by a similar process.

2. Vacancies

The filling of each staff position is confirmed by an affirmative vote of 75% or more of the members present at a duly called meeting, representing God's call on each candidate to the staff position. Ministry staff candidates are proposed by the Senior Pastor with concurrence of the Elder Board. For the filling of associate pastoral positions, the Senior Pastor and Elder Board, by their agreement, may either act as a search team or designate a search team, which shall propose a candidate to the congregation.

Upon the occurrence of a vacancy or announcement of a pending vacancy in the Senior Pastor position, the Elder Board shall nominate a Pastoral Search Team and call a congregational meeting to affirm by majority vote the proposed team. The Pastoral Search Team shall consist of two sitting elders and five other representatives from both the leadership and the congregation. The search team shall organize itself, conduct a suitable search, and propose a candidate to the Elder Board. Associate pastors who meet the requirements for Senior Pastor may be considered. The Elder Board will present an approved candidate for Senior Pastor to the church members for an affirming vote. The duly elected search team is disbanded when the congregation chooses a new Senior Pastor by an affirming vote or when the congregation votes, by a majority, to end the search.

3. Terminations

Any pastoral or ministry staff person may resign upon discerning that God's call to their position has been fulfilled. A ministry staff person may be dismissed upon the recommendation of the Elder Board at a duly called meeting of the church members, who, by a majority vote of those present, determine God's call to the position has been revoked. Any pastor may be dismissed following gross and/or continuing inconsistencies between the pastor's behavior and the position qualifications and responsibilities, or when the pastor's actions, attitudes, and conversation destroy, rather than build up, the unity of the church. In these situations, the Elder Board will make a reasonable effort to reprove and restore the pastor. Failing this, the Elder Board shall present a recommendation for dismissal to the church members at a duly called meeting. The recommendation is approved by an affirmative vote of a majority of members present. Unless otherwise agreed to by both parties, notice of resignation by a pastor or dismissal by the church will be given in writing with at least 30 days notice.

Within the first six months of his service, if a new Senior Pastor encounters fundamental disagreements with any person serving in a position that reports to the Senior Pastor and finds that the differences are not resolvable through private meetings, the Senior Pastor may bring the issue to the Elder Board. With the Elder Board's concurrence, the person who disagrees with the Senior Pastor may be dismissed from his or her position, effective following a specified grace period, without revealing the nature of the disagreement to the congregation or conducting a membership vote.
